CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF
WASHINGTON

20 APR 1983

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill,

(S) Since 1963, politico-military simulations have been conducted under the sponsorship of the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, for senior government officials. The simulations are designed to examine US policy options and to alert, inform, and sensitize senior government policymakers. The next simulation, OMEGA-83, will be conducted at the Pentagon from 23-27 May 1983, and will examine US policy relating to a terrorist act against US nuclear weapons deployed overseas. Civilian policymakers and military officers at the Assistant Secretary/Ambassador - Lieutenant General/General Officer levels are being invited.

(U) I extend a cordial invitation for you to participate in OMEGA-83. Your personal contribution, of course, would be invaluable. I also solicit your support for the participation we need from your Agency to make the simulation a meaningful experience. Based on recommendations from your Washington staff and other agencies, I have invited several members of your Agency. I have enclosed a list of those invited and request that you facilitate and encourage as many as possible to participate. For those who attend, the experience should be rewarding, both personally and for your Agency.

(U) I have also enclosed an information book which provides more detail on the politico-military simulation process. Additional information can be provided by contacting either Commodore James M. Seely; Chief of the JCJS Studies, Analysis, and Gaming Agency, 695-9162; or the Project Officer, Lieutenant Colonel Francis B. Gilligan at 697-9860.

Sincerely,
